Engagement of Miss Sturgis to Nigel Cholmeley-Jones Is Announced; Wedding to Take Place in Spring

Miss Peck Weds Saturday

Bridge and Dansant Given at Hotel Plaza for Benefit of War Sufferers

Miss Helen A. Carrere, daughter of drs. L. Sidney Carrers, of 187 East ride of Frederick K. Barbour, son of Mrs. William Barbour, February 17, in St. James's Church, Madison Avenue and Seventy-first Street. The ceremony Jane Donald, daughters of Mrs. Graeme

scott Gardner, James Symington,

Mrs. Robert Sturgis, of 152 East
Thirty-eighth Street, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Rita Sturgis, to Nigel Cholmeley-Jones, of this city. Miss Sturgis was introduced to society several years ago and is a member of the Junior League. Mr. Cholmeley-Jones is the eldest son of Edward Cholmeley-Jones and a nephew of the late Richard Watson Gilder. He served as a captain in the army in France. He has two brothers, Richard and Roynon Cholmeley-Jones, who also were in the service. He lives with his sister, Mrs. Percy Litchfield, 100 East Seventeenth Street. The wedding will take place in the spring.

Miss Flens Merical Peak devicts.

Painters. Her sisters are Mrs. Bowditch, wife of Dr. Harold Bowditch, of Brookline, Mass., and Miss Mary and Miss Thea Brush. Mr. Pierce is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Winslow S. Pierce, of Dunstable, Bayville, Long Island.

The Stage Door

Klaw and Erlanger opened their twenty-first season with "Ben Hur" last night at the Forrest Theater, Philadelphia. The production is under the personal direction of A. L. Erlanger. "Ben Hur" was presented originally at the Broadway Theater in 1899.

Miss Flens Merical Sturgis, of 152 East Of Brookline, Mass., and Miss Mary and Miss Thea Brush. Mr. Pierce is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Winslow S. Pierce, of Dunstable, Bayville, Long Island.

The Stage Door

Klaw and Erlanger opened their twenty-first season with "Ben Hur" last night at the Forrest Theater, Philadelphia. The production is under the personal direction of A. L. Erlanger. With Harsh Features

By Arthur S. Draper

From The Tribune's European Bureau

fiss Elena Marjorie Peck, daughter
Mr. and Mrs. William Emerson Peck, 165 West Fifty-eighth Street, will narried to Lawrence Huntoon Earle, of Lawrence C. Earle, on Saturday
rnoon at 4 o'clock in Grace Church, engagement was announced last her. Miss Policy Common Street, will narried to Lawrence C. Earle, on Saturday
rnoon at 4 o'clock in Grace Church, engagement was announced last the engagement was announced last tober. Miss Peck served for nearly year with the American Red Cross in sance. Mr. Earle was a captain in the Ordnance Department, U. S. A. He is in the service about two years, rving with the A. E. F. in France and weland.

For the benefit of the book committee of the Art War Relief, a combination auction bridge and the dansant as given yesterday in the ballroom of a Hotel Plaza. The proceeds will be evoted to the fund that supplies books of the little children of France and eligium, who during the war were cut of from all such things.

Mrs. Adelaide B. Cushing was chairan of the entertainment committee, mong the young women who served as were Miss Barbara Kissel, Miss live Gawtrey, Miss Betty Chisolm and liss Katharine Post.

Among the women assisting Mrs.

of the entertainment committee.

In the young women who served were Miss Barbara Kissel, Miss Gawtrey, Miss Betty Chisolm and Katharine Post.

Ing were Mrs. J. Robert McKee, Addison Adams, Mrs. Herbert is, Mrs. John Wood Blodgett, Mrs. In Henry, Mrs. John White Alextra Mrs. Benjamin Morton, Mrs. A. S. Franklin, Mrs. Lewis in Gawtrey, Mrs. Lindley M. Gar, Mrs. Frederick Eldridge, Mrs. E. Gould, Mrs. James Gray and Mrs. am G. Haan.

Leo Ditrichstein, as a compliment to Brandon Tynan, who is his leading male support in "The Purple Mask" at the Booth Theater, will appear at the Booth Theater, will appear at the benefit for the Catholic Actors' Guild at the George M. Cohan Theater on Sunday evening, February 15.

The stage crew at the Winter Garden will give its annual ball at the 71st Regiment Armory on March 21. Stage hands of other theaters in the city will attend.

Jean May, niece of Alexander Carllele will appear at the Booth Theater, will appear at the Booth Theater will app

William G. Haan.

Miss Henrietta S. Ward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Alexander Ward, of 319 Garrield Place, Brooklyn, will be married to Roland B. Peacock, of 471 Park Avenue, Manhattan this aftermoon in Holy Trinity Church, Montague Street, Brooklyn. The ceremony will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Jean May, niece of Alexander Carlisie, will appear in "The Tragedy of Nan," in which her aunt will soon be presented at the Thirty-ninth Street Theater in a series of special matinees. This will be her first appearance on the stage.

"The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" with Jack Pickford in his initial appearance as a Goldwan star. of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Henry H. Rogers, of 270 Park Avenue, will give a recention with Avenue, will give a reception with music this afternoon at her home.

Mrs. Myron C. Taylor will give a din-her this evening at her home, 16 East Seventieth Street.

The Junior Assembly dances will be resumed next winter, the dates selected being December 8, January 7 and February 4, at the Ritz-Carlton.

Mrs. Pembroke Jones has returned from Belleair and is at the Hotel Plaza for a few weeks.

S. Montgomery Roosevelt, of 44 West Seventy-seventh Street, left yesterday for Palm Beach. He will spend the season at the Everglades Club.

Next Monday evening, February 16, Sam H. Harris will present "Honey Girl," his first musical show, at the season at the Everglades Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierpont M. Hamilton, fon and daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. William P.erson Hamilton, will sall for Europe February 17 to spend a year abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Tuck French, of this city and Tuxedo, are at the Hotel Ambassador, Santa Barbara, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. Sturges will give a dinner February 19 at their home, 17 East Fifty-first Street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Thorn Kissel are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son Saturday at their home, 405 Park Avenue. This is their second child, the first being a daughter. Mrs. Kissel was Miss Frances Dallet.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Perkins left the city yesterday for Stuart, Fla., where they will be for the remainder of the winter.

Brady Sword Left to Son; Widow Receives Estate

Author-Minister Commends the Church He Served So Long to father" is bequeathed to Cyrus Townsather" is bequeathed to Cyrus Townsend Brady ir. by the will of his father, the Rev. Dr. Cyrus Townsend Brady, who died in Yonkers on January 24. The document, which was filed yesterday with Surrogate Slager at White Plains, leaves the bulk of the authorminister's estate to his wife, Mary Barrett Brady, who is named as executricite Brady, who is named as executricite gives:

"I. Cyrus Townsend Brady, priest of the Protestant Episcopal Church and author of many books, being possessed of sound and disposing mind, do make and ordain this my last will and testament.

Artist's Daughter Who Is to Wed

Miss Jane Brush

Her engagement to Winslow S. Pierce jr. was announced recently by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George de Forest Brush, of 410 West End Daniel F. Kellogg jr. and Maynard Avenue. Miss Brush's father is one of the best known of New York's 11 Medal of Honor Men painters. Her sisters are Mrs. Bowditch, wife of Dr. Harold Bowditch,

At the Shubert-Riviera Theater last night "The Girl in the Limousine," which had been at the Eltinge, was presented as the attraction for the week.

"Going Up and Coming Down," a new burlesque in two acts by Loney Haskell, opened last night at the Co-lumbia Theater with the "Bowery Bur-lumbia" providing the fun. Vaude-

The Park of the Shepherd of Kindom with Jack Pickford in Management of the Strand.

The Park of the Shepherd of Kindom with Jack Pickford in Management of the Strand.

The Strand.

The Shepherd of Kindom with Jack Pickford in Management of the Strand.

The Strand.

The Shepherd of Kindom with Jack Pickford in Management of the Strand.

The Strand.

The Shepherd of Kindom with Jack Pickford in Management of the Strand.

The Strand.

The Shepherd of Kindom with Jack Pickford in Management of the Strand.

The Strand.

The Shepherd of Kindom with Jack Pickford in Management of the Strand 300 Works To Be Shown in U. S. by Giovanni del Guzzo Giovanni del Guzzo, an Italian painter and writer, who arrived here last night on the Italian liner Duca d'Aosta from Genoa, brought with him three hundred paintings by Italian artists which he will exhibit at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, and later in San Francisco, Boston, Chicago and Philadelphia. On his return del Guzzo will take back a collection of paintings by American artists for exhibition in Italy. He said his sole object in coming here with his exhibits was to stimulate a closer exchange of ideas between American and Italian artists.

On the run of the vessel from Genoa a boy fourteen and a boy seventeen, both steerage passengers, died of pneumonia and were buried at sea.

NIGHT

Dance of the Leviathan Post, American Cught. American Sugar Refining Company, Hotel Pennsylvania, 3:30 p. m. Dinner of the American Sugar Refining Company, Hotel Astor, 7 p. m. Concert and dance of the Ruchalpin, 8 p. m. Dance of the Mechanics' and Metals' National Bank, Hotel McAlpin, 8 p. m. Meeting of the Auto Coach Builders' Association, Hotel McAlpin, 7:30 p. m. Meeting of the New York Society, Hotel Mechanics' and Metals' National Bank, Hotel McAlpin, 7:30 p. m. Meeting of the New York Society, Hotel Mechanics' and Metals' National Bank, Hotel McAlpin, 8 p. m. Meeting of the Coppers' Board of Trade, Hotel McAlpin, 7:30 p. m. Meeting of the Auto Coach Builders' Association, Hotel McAlpin, 7:30 p. m. Meeting of the Coppers' Board of Trade, Hotel McAlpin, 7:30 p. m. Meeting of the Coppers' Board of Trade, Hotel McAlpin, 7:30 p. m. Meeting of the Coppers' Board of Trade, Hotel McAlpin, 7:30 p. m. Meeting of the Coppers' Board of Trade, Hotel McAlpin, 7:30 p. m. Meeting of the Coppers' Board of Trade, Hotel McAlpin, 7:30 p. m. Meeting of the Coppers' Board of Trade, Hotel McAlpin, 7:30 p. m. Meeting of the Coppers' Board of Trade, Hotel McAlpin, 7:30 p. m. Meeting of the Coppers' Board of Trade, Hotel McAlpin, 7:30 p. m. Meeting of the Coppers' Board of Trade, Hotel McA

hurch He Served So Long to Children and Friends
"My sword and the sword of my steering passengers, died of pneumonia and were buried at sea.

American Dollar Is Made

Legal Tender in Bolivia Legal Tender in Bolivia
The Bolivian Congress has enacted a law making the United States gold dollar legal tender in Bolivia, and the Executive has fixed the rate of exchange at 2.57 holivianos to the dollar.
This action is taken for the purpose of aiding the banks that are using American gold as their metal reserve in the place of the English pound sterling. The fixed rate of exchange will have no effect upon commercial transactions.

"Imprimis, I declare that I die in full confidence and assurance of the faith of the Church which I have presched and in which I have humbly tried to live, and which I earnestly commend to my children and my friends as my final message to them."

The value of the estate is put at more than $5,000 resi and $5,000 personal preparty.

Actions.

Wants a Bride as Model

A West Dallas, Tex., widow says the latest proposal she has received was from an Oak Cliff art student, who said he was painting the picture of a sea hymph and wanted a wife who would pose for him in the Trinity River.—

Dallas News.

Delights Audience

Opera Lends Itself Well to the Spectacular Meth-

Miss Mary Garden,

In Role of Thais,

that of Thais, the Alexandrian courtesan—at the Lexington Theatre last evening. Massenet's opera lends itself well to Miss Garden's spectacular methods, for the music is chiefly of the sugar and water variety. Thus her vocal shortcomings seem less glaring and are more readily condoned.

Those who sit at her feet had constant cause for delight last evening in watching the exhibition of the singer's electric personality, to which all else in the opera subordinates itself. But Miss Garden has exaggerated her performance out of all proportions. Hers is no longer magnificent aplomb, but a nervous striving for sensationalism, which never fails to reach the goal. Her performance has become a restless succession of theatrical posturings, and in the 'second act her wildly waving arms are no longer cloquent in their gestures.

As the courtesan reformed Miss Gar-

As the courtesan reformed, Miss Garden's ability to color her tones at will, according to the character she is impersonating, was vividly illustrated. Generally speaking, her impersonation has deteriorated.

Mr. Dufferner, Athennal

Mr. Dufranne Athanael is sincere.

In 2 New York Divisions

Five in 27th and Six in 77th Among 78 in A. E. F. to Get Highest Decoration

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau
WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The 27th
New York National Guard Division had five medal of honor men and the 77th Division, trained at Camp Upton and known as New York's drafted division, had six medal of honor men, the War Department disclosed to-day in an analysis of honors conferred by the War Department during the world war.
The medal of honor was bestowed on seventy-eight officers and enlisted men of the service during the war. Members of twenty combat divisions and of the tank corps and the air service won

"Every man has his own Christ."
says Epstein, in reply to the critics.
"I have tried to express my idea in stone. No one sat as a model for the statue. It must be refused or accepted on its merits."

The figure bears the wrappings of the tomb. The arms are free, with the right hand held on a level with the breast, while the left points to the wound in the palm of the right hand caused by crucifixion. The body is slender and the chest is thin. There are no hips.

being racial the sculptor has turned out a head typically American, with harsh features, strikingly like those of Mr. Wilson. It is a distinct departure from the conventional softness of the Italian representation of the Saviour.

Opposed by Cardinal

Would Commercialize Day and Open Way to Other Amusements, He Says

Special Disputch to The Tribune

BALTIMORE, Feb. 9.—Cardinal Gibbons, in an interview to-day, expressed opposition to moving picture shows on Sunday, as would be permitted in abill about to be introduced in the Legislature.

"Why do you oppose moving pictures on Sunday?" the Cardinal was asked.
"Because it commercializes the day.
Proprietors of moving picture parlors have six days in the week to earn a livelihood. Why should they wish to make use of the only day of the week that is God's day? Grant this privilege and what will prevent the legitimate theaters from opening their doors on the common green in the United States, said theaters from opening their doors on the common aim of the sunday? Such a privilege will only be the entering wedge to admit other amusements of a commercial and pernicious character.

Westernation of a dictional Republican Club, 54 (West Fortieth Street, The theory of Bolshevism, of a dictional Republican Club, 54 (West Fortieth Street, The theory of Bolshevism, of a dictional Republican Club, 54 (West Fortieth Street, The theory of Bolshevism, of a dictional Republican Club, 54 (West Fortieth Street, The theory of Bolshevism, of a dictional Republican Club, 54 (West Fortieth Street, The Common aim of the protestariat, of the rule of the manual workers, is making rapid progress in the United States, said Major Dwight. All shades of radical theaters from opening their doors on on the common aim of the sunday? Such a privilege will only be the entering wedge to admit other and this form of the protestariation of the common aim of the restorement, and all derive their doctrines from the maniple of the common aim of the restorement, and all derive their doctrines from the maniple of the city before he should be provided in Americans beth to do mind unharrassed by the sordid necesting of mind unharrassed by the sordid necesting of making ends meet and this free mind, he asserted, can be assured only by t

March 28 in Metropolitan

The benefit performance for the Oscar Hammerstein Memorial Fund will take place March 28 in the Metropolitan Opera House. The management of the organization which Mr. Hammerstein fought so bitterly during the existence of the Manhattan Opera Company in New York, recently donated the structure to Mrs. Hammerstein for this purpose.

Among the singers who have offered to appear are Enrico Caruso, Geraldine Farrar, Frances Alda, Antonio Scotti, Pasquale Amato, Claudia Muzio, Rosa Ponselle, Giovanni Martinelli, Giuseppe de Luca and Andrea de Segurola.

Of Food Controllership
LONDON, Feb. 9.—Viscount Astor is quoted by "The Evening Standard" today as denying that he has been offered the Food Controllership. One of the morning newspapers printed a report that the Viscount had been invited to succeed George H. Roberts as Food Controller. Manhattan

"Our Pagan Peoples," by C. J. Blanchard, Wadleigh High School, 118th Street, near Seventh Avenue; illustrated.

"A Cry in the Wildorness," by Arthur J.
Westermayer, Public School 66, Bightyeighth Street, near First Avenua.
"Count Lee Tolstoil or, the New Feeling for Mankind," by Dr. John H. Randall, Public School 135, 182d Street and Wadsworth Avenue.
"Rabbi Ben Exra," by Alfred W. Martin, American Museum of Natural History,
Seventy-seventh Street and Central Park
West.

DUTTON'S Special Room for

BOARD OF EDUCATION LECTURES

West.

Educational Aspects of the Museum," by Edith R. Abbott, Hunter College, Lexington Avenue and Bixty-eighth Street; illustrated.

Gladstone, England's Grand Old Man,"
by John de Morgan, Metropolitan Temple, Seventh Avenue and Fourteenth Street.

Our American Representative Deproc

Street.

"Our American Representative Democracy," by Charles B. Ackley, Public School 56, 207th Street and Hull Avenue, Bronx.

Impressions of the International Armietice Commission, by Colman D. Frank. St. Anselm's Hall, Tinton Avenue, near 185th Street.

VALENTINES Bring the Children to 681 Fifth Avenue

On the Screen

"Thirteenth Commandment" Provides Argument for Married Couples

The trouble with "The Thirteenth ods of Impersonator; Rialto Theater this week, is that it Others Share Laurels gives husbands an opportunity to smug-Thais, the Alexandrian courteness make her an appealing figure, but her acting is ineffective. Watching her on the screen is like eating unsalted

She has a strong cast around her, and the picture might be distinctly labeled the "popular" kind if only for the bpportunity it gives husbands and wives to argue. In the first place, it is assumed all husbands are poor, hard-working slaves who toil at their offices night and day while their butterfly wives go to cabarets with strange men and run up extraordinary bills for clothes.

wives to argue. In the first place, it is assumed all husbands are poor, hard-working slaves who toil at their offices night and day while their butterfly wives go to cabarets with strange men and run up extraordinary bills for clothes.

A masculing villain in the person of Thomas Warwick Duane (Irving Cummings) flits across the screen, but most of the treachery is left to the other mings would be a regular villain if he serven and even divert from him the kind of sympathy that usually goes out to attractive villains.

He has dark designs on Daphne at the beginning of the picture. He even the starts out to kiss her, but stops half way when she threatens to throw something at him—we forget whether the boy and helps Daphne in a purely, altruistic way. He does not even finish the kiss, which seems very inartic from a pictorial point of view.

We cannot see what it is that makes him a villain in this picture, for he really behaves more sensibly than Clay Wimborn (Charles Meredith), the very "good young man" to whem Daphne is engaged. Clay is rather foolish and includes in an unnecessarily passionate love scene that makes Duane's attempts at love-making pale by way of comparison. We have never seen any fining quite, like it on the screen—certainly not since the time of the exagged and the result is not particularly flattering to the sex of picture for the same of the exagged and the result is not particularly flattering to the sex it is the sort of picture for the same of the examination of teachers or those who have received their final caselis for a prospective variance and rathed pursued under our cational system calls for a prospective vacches. Transing to Eacher going through high school and training school examinations, before the metring the Teachers' Training to the received high school and training school examination by school and training school examination by checking the board of examiners. No matter the

DREICER & CO

Pearls. Precious Stones

FIFTE AVENUE of FORTY-SIXTH

At Your Service.

friend in need if there's anything within reason that you must have quickly. Just call The Good Morning Girl, Beekman 3000. To-morrow you'll have the busiest little ad you ever saw as an errand bearer.

That's the Tribune. Every telephone is your

Mayor Orders Bill Sleigh Parties Open Drawn to Suppress Ettinger's Board

Blames Local Examiners for Shortage in Teachers; Denounces Required Test as 'Unfair' to Young Women

The Mayor's letter follows: "Last year during the time the Leg-islature was in session and again this year there has been a great deal of agitation about the shortage of teach-ers. This has for its purpose, of course, the question of increased salaries for those who have received their diplomas.

"Unfair to Girls"

Class Germans Held and University Dramatic Society Gives Annual Play Special Dispatch to The Tribune NEW HAVEN, Conn., Feb. 9.—From he series of sleighing parties which to-day opened the program of the Yale "prom" till the class germans, which will not be finished until near daybreak to-morrow, the guests of the members of the class of 1921 tripped through a swift variety of festivities. Nature furnished the guests, hundreds of them Westerners, with a setting of winter beauty ideal for sleighing, and several of the germans on to-night's programs were prefaced by dinner parties at the Oakdale Tavern, the Meriden "1711 Club" and other country clubs, the more distant of which were reached by auto, the nearer by the sleighing parties. Friends of Mrs. Anna Kaplan are going to give a party for her this morning at 302 East 100th Street. **u which Mrs. Kaplan's baby boy, one week old, will be given away to the first at the Party who will bestow upon the infant forthwith whatever name its foster-parent chooses. Mrs. Kaplan isn't giving away ber baby because she doesn't want him.

ties at the Oakdale Tavern, the Morice of Mr. 1711 Club, and other country clubs, the more distant of which were reached by auto the nearer by the sleighing parties.

This afternoon the teas of the Sheffield Scientific School fraternities began. At Vernon Hall the patronesses were Mrs. William Howard Taft, Mrs. Arthur Twining Hadley, Mrs. Russell H. Chittenden, Mrs. William Sargeant Kendall, Mrs. Edwin Rice Marsh, Mrs. Lee Fredrick Rettger, Mrs. L. H. English, Mrs. W. Schuyler Volkmar, Mrs. Edward Minor, Mrs. George Parmelee Day, Mrs. John Walker Wheeler, Mrs. Joseph M. Vance, Mrs. Marie L. Watson, Mrs. McDowell Hosley and Mrs. Jone M. Warder.

Miss Lolita Armour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ogden Armour, of Chicago, is one of the guests at the Colony. With Mrs. Swift, of Chicago, and Miss Katherine Seward, of Boston, she is the guest of Darrow Bruce Fulton, of Albany.

At York Hall the patronesses were Mrs. N. G. Robertson, Mrs. P. G. Woderhouse and Mrs. Matthew Griswold, of New York City.

The patronesses at the Franklin Hall tea were Mrs. Huntington Smith, of New York City.

The patronesses at the Franklin Hall tea were Mrs. Huntington Smith, of New York City.

The patronesses at the Franklin Hall tea were Mrs. W. P. Sargent, of Providence; Mrs. G. W. Stafford, of New York City.

The patronesses at the Franklin Hall tea were Mrs. Huntington Smith, of New York City.

The patronesses at the Franklin Hall tea were Mrs. Huntington Smith, of New York City.

The patronesses at the Franklin Hall tea were Mrs. W. P. Sargent, of Providence; Mrs. G. W. Stafford, of New York City.

The patronesses at the Franklin Hall tea were Mrs. Huntington Smith, of Providence; Mrs. G. W. Stafford, of New York City.

The patronesses at the Franklin Hall tea were Mrs. Huntington Smith, of Providence; Mrs. G. Leroy Clark, of Providence; Mrs. G. J. W. Stafford, of Providence; Mrs. G. Leroy Clark, of Providence; Mrs. G. Leroy Clar

Mother Will Give Fete Program at Yale Her Baby Boy Away As Token at Party

Rabbi Will Be There to Bestow Any Name Desired; Mrs. Kaplan Says She's Saving Her Infant's Life

service of the control of the contro Royal Worcester CORSETS ARE the ONLY corsets made with the patented O·I·C (Oh! I see) clasp which will not Pinch. Squeak or Twist, always Stays Flat, and the STUD cannot Pull Out or Break Off! Every woman should wear them. Stores Everywhere